

Dr. Greer received a Warrior Coin today. She has been a warrior and continues to be a warrior with regard to her battle with breast cancer. She has remained positive, encouraging, and an example to her colleagues and for her students. I think her signature at the end of her emails helps to capture her positive outlook and approach to life: "Listen, Observe, Learn. Immerse yourself in the process of becoming your best self". Congratulations, Dr. Greer!

